How the days are spent

Indicative. The mix is adjusted to each cohort.

Is this for you?

This may be for you if

- You have built a career, stability or standing
- You sense you are living by others' expectations
- Something feels missing, though you cannot yet name it
- You are ready to look honestly, and willing to change

Not the right time if

- You are in acute crisis or distress
- You are in active addiction
- You are living with untreated severe mental illness
- Someone else has sent you

These situations need care first, not a retreat. We say so plainly and refer you onward. Renovo Path is not therapy, coaching or medical treatment.
